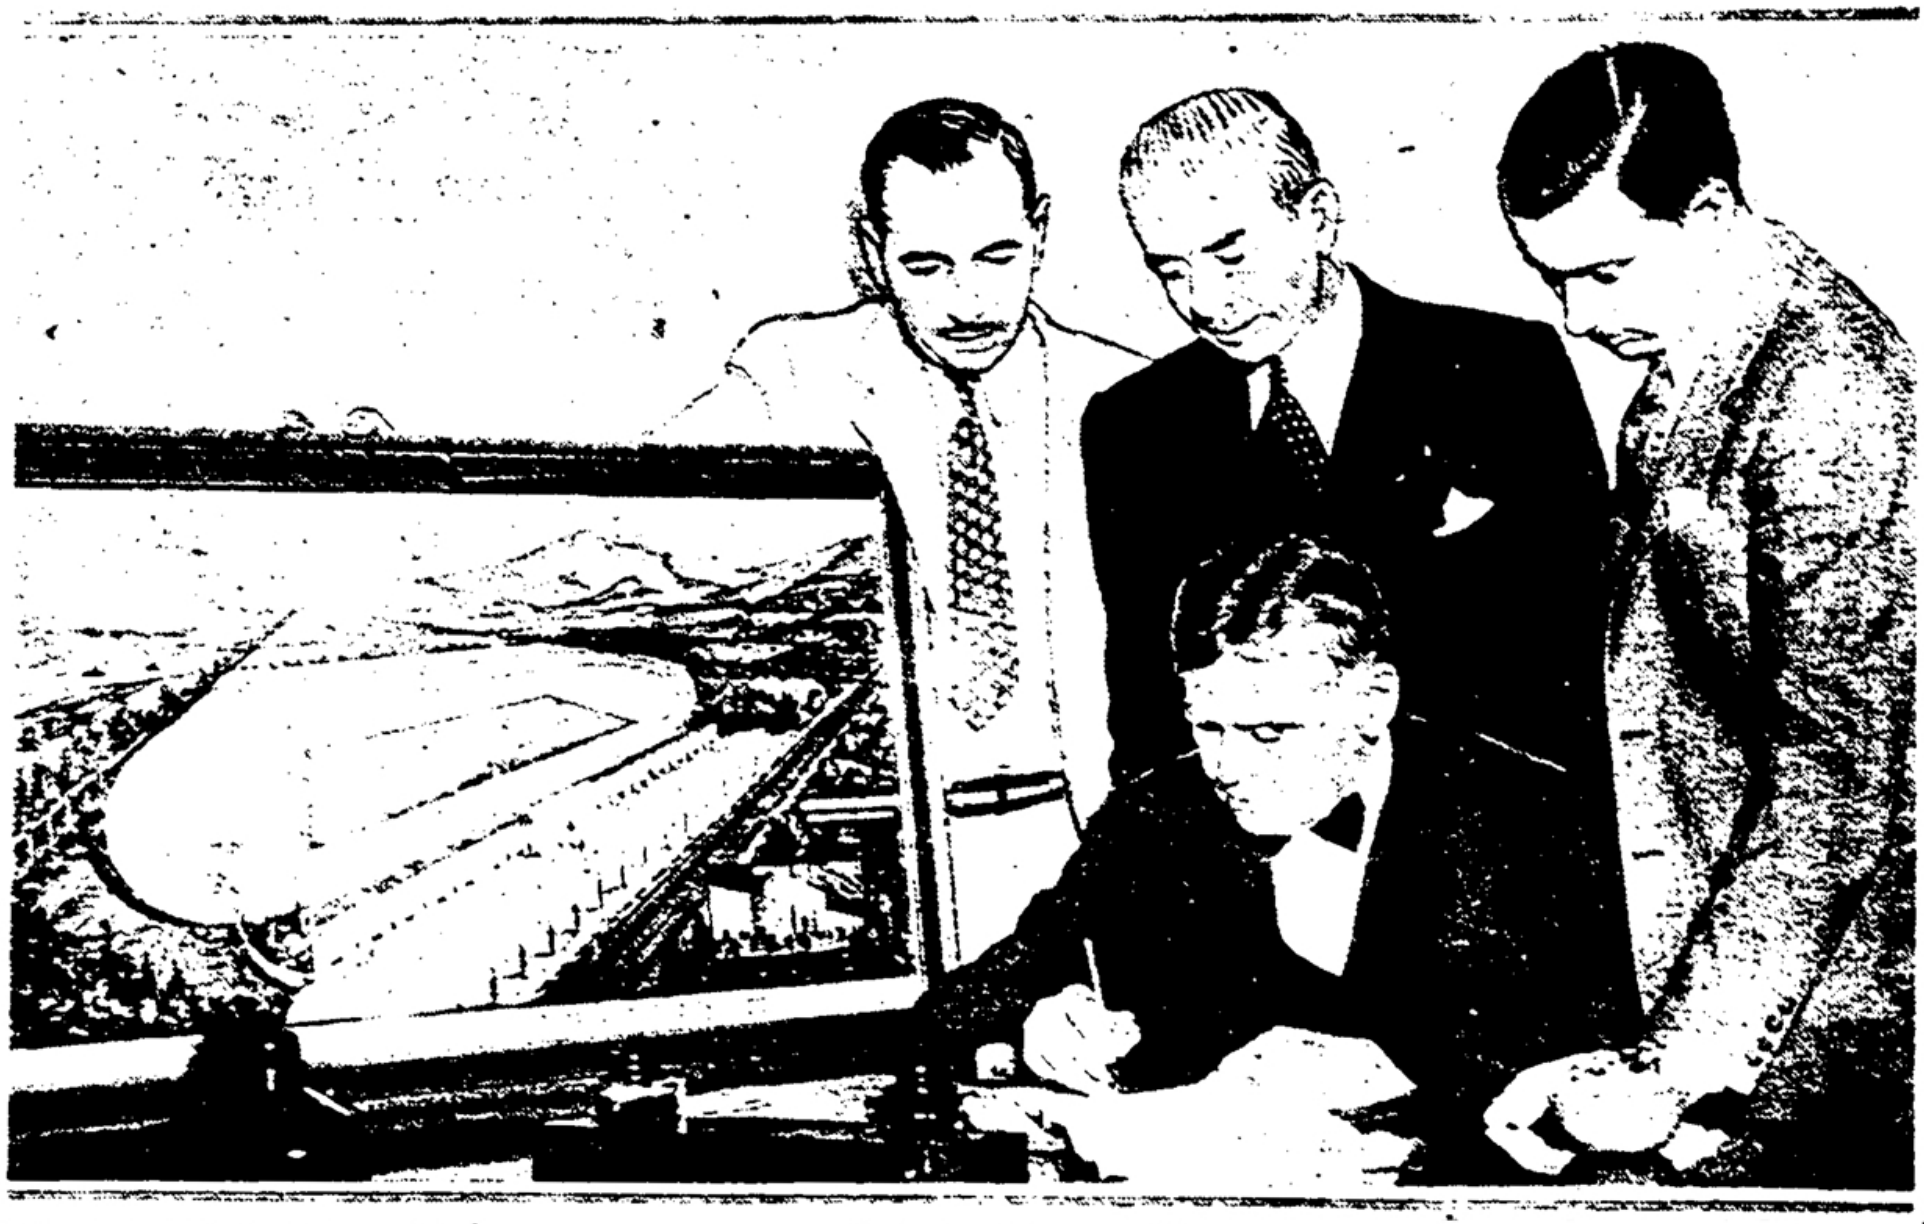
Los Angeles Times OCTOBER 26, 1933.

A Quartet of "One Track" Minds

Below, Joseph Mesmer affixes signature to a twenty-year lease for 150 acres of land near the Del Rey Hills, which will be the site of the new Los Angeles Speedway. The project will cost several hundred thousand dollars. Standing, left to right, Earl A. Smythe, vice-president of the organization; R. C. Hanna and A. J. Mesmer, treasurer, look on with approbation.



NEW RACE TRACK PLANNED

Twenty-Year Lease Signed on 150-Acre Tract in Del Rey Hills for All Types of Speed Programs